These improvements are due to the possibility of using finer cards and finer combs and employing finer and shorter wools. History of the Firm. John and William Yewdall ran the mills until 1870, when they were succeeded by Fiss, Banes and Erben, the firm being composed of George W. Fiss, Colonel Charles H. Banes and Henry Erben. A year and a-half afterwards Theodore C. Search was admitted to the firm, the name being changed to Fiss, Banes, Erben and Co. This relation continued until 1883. In 1883 the firm was succeeded by the firm of Erben, Search and Co. , composed of Henry Erben, Theodore C. Search, Charles H. Harding and Walter Erben and so stands today. In Fiss, Banes and Erbens time the capacity of the mills was increased fifty per cent. The business continued to increase and the quarters became too limited for the operations carried on by the last firm and in 1884, the draft and plans were obtained for the new mills which were located finally at Tacony, in the city of Philadelphia. These mills were built expressly for the manufacture of worsted yarns. Before building them a careful investigation was made of leading works of like kind in Europe. The works are situated on the Delaware river, whence the water supply is drawn, and on the Pennsylvania railroad, two sidings of which connect the works with the main line. The works, besides the rooms used for worsted...
