Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Its the 1960 s, in a wooded area beckoning for exploration, a secret government project, incorporating a self sustaining array is in operation. Improved by a small group of scientists, and two youngsters, in an incredible undocumented history of fact and fiction, will take you on trails of adventure, that will bend your mind, and forever alter your sense of reality. Concerned about planetary disruption that could end all life on the planet, they come to agreement to disband, to let nature and humanity make its own choice. Not all discoveries are revealed to the world. From exciting memories of youth starting in the 3rd grade, the Narrator, along with a Beaver tells a complex series of events, inter-weaving three intertwined stories in non-chronological order to convey a specific series of events in sequence. Each transpiring event is a mini story or short story of its own. The mini stories are bits of a puzzle. As events progress and are put together in a pattern they build into three stories. One story about a lost boy in the...
