Paul Siebels, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We re taking a shortcut. So began another one of what became known as Dad s Famous Shortcuts . They were never short, never what Dad expected, and they were never (well, almost never) boring. As kids, we had a love/hate relationship with Dad s shortcuts. They usually meant a longer, not shorter, car ride which we stoically endured, but also a more colorful, exciting, and humorous journey which we came to cherish for years afterwards. Dad s Famous Shortcuts have been remembered throughout our lives and are now celebrated in this book. This collection of funny, fantastic, and sometimes poetic lessons of one family s misadventures will amuse anyone who has embarked on that traditional rite of passage, The summer vacation .
