Whether your dreams are seen in the unconscious state, or merely about what your future holds, you ve achieved an excellency of maintaining those dreams, keeping them inside and part of your imagination. That s what dreams are, correct? But now they ve gotten out of control. Predicting your life was not part of the deal. Suddenly you re caught up in the dreams that you know will soon happen. And why is the girl from your philosophy class involved? What does she have anything to do with you? Besides the crush you ve had ever since she moved here. You have a simple life. Working at the library, skipping school to work, hacking into computers on your spare time, meditating, just the normal things. You may have started meditating to block out your visions disguised as dreams, and so far it s worked. But now it isn t. And now the girl in your philosophy class is in trouble and it seems like everyone wants to kill you. What s a girl like you to do? Kidnap the girl in your philosophy class and attempt to save her? No problem.
