Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 290 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. THE BOOK IS TRANSLATED IN RUSSIAN Summary in English While the earth is caught in a mad race, where millions of people are fighting for their lives, the realm of high finance inexorably pursues its destructive projects with complete impunity. The story you are about to read is surprisingly in line with current events. It might prove truer than the truth, should the truth be revealed. Anne Standfort is a talented journalist; a mysterious and fabulously wealthy unknown superior will recruit her to write a book, and this will lead her into the shady dealings of the strange financial world. Often shocked and sometimes horrified, she will be confronted with concepts of good and evil, which are foreign to her. She will discover, and the reader with her, the birth and the role of a central bank, all the way up to the implementation of a future world currency. She will become aware of the occult power of certain Masonic lodges and some oligarchic families. Very few people are aware of their limitless power. Desperately trying to remain calm and detached, she will be moving between a reality totally unknown to her and an imaginative, mesmerizing world. She will not come out of this suspenseful adventure morally unscathed nor will her husband or her son. A story about money An encounter with spirituality This book raises essential questions and invites the reader to an unceasing quest for answers. About the Author Pascal Roussel works as a Head of Unit at the Financial Risk Department of the world's largest investment bank (EIB). As a valued free-lance writer specialized in the analysis of risks connected to change and currencies, he has become through...
