Where in some cave shaped out by nature s hands I ll hear the noisy brook go babbling by, Or, plunging deep into the forest s shade, Will catch but glimpses of the azure sky; Then on a bed prepared from pine tree s boughs I long at length my weary form to lay, Where I can hear the whippoor-will at eve And view the closing of a perfect day. MY AMBITION I dare not hope to conquer fame, Mpr ever see the time When in this body I shall dwell Upon the heights sublime. But I would love to make men glad, And be content the while To...
