

The Noise of Battle: The British Army and the Last Breakthrough Battle West of the Rhine, February-March 1945

By Tony Colvin

Helion & Company. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Noise of Battle: The British Army and the Last Breakthrough Battle West of the Rhine, February-March 1945, Tony Colvin, Half of the book is a detailed description, mainly told in the words of participants, of three battles fought over four days in the Rhineland south of Goch between 27 February and March 2 1945. The battles were between 3rd Division supported by 6 Guards Armoured Brigade, and 8. Fallschirmjager Division. For the first time the combined actions of over 50,000 men during 96 hours have been analysed from the ground up in an unprecedented attempt to provide understanding of a significant military event. 3 Scots Guards said of Winnekendonk, "It is suggested that this will surely rank as one of the finest small scale tank/infantry battles ever executed and well worthy of more close study." The fighting was bloody and heroic, and some controversial aspects are explained for the first time. The other half of the book is an analysis of the units and people involved in the two divisions and their supporting armour and aviation. An answer is provided as to why only two months before the end of...
