Severance, librarian of the University of Missouri (University of Missouri Bulletin v. 20, No. 11, April, 1919). This pamphlet has been published in the interest of establishing standards for high school libraries in Missouri. In preparing for it, a careful study was made of the high schools of the state thru a questionnaire sent to all accredited schools, which brought 179 replies. The suggestions cover the essential features for schools of varying size from less than 200 to more than 500 pupils, and include the topics Housing and equipment; The librarian; Selection and care of books, classification, cataloging, etc.; and Appropriations. It contains a selected working bibliography of eleven titles, and a summary of statistics secured from replies to the questionnaire. One high school at Lamar, Missouri, having an enrollment of only 135, employs a full time librarian; has a library of 4,796...
