John Mulso; Edited With Notes and an Introduction The first mention of the Correspondence between Gilbert White of Selborne and John Mulso, that I have been able to discover, occurs in a short biography of the naturalist written by Mr. Edward Jesse for Sir William Jardine s edition of the Selborne published in 1850. Mr. Jesse, after stating that Mrs. Chapone s brother, John Mulso, was White s most intimate friend, continues and between them a most interesting and amusing series of letters took place. These letters would have been well worth publishing, and it was intended that this should be done; but when Mr. Mulso s son was applied to for Mr. White s correspondence, the mortifying answer was re-turned that they had all been destroyed. Mr. Mulso s letters we understand are still remaining. The letters from Mulso came into the possession of John White, the publisher, a nephew of the naturalist. From him they passed to his son, the late Revd. John Tahourdin White, D.D., long a master at Christ s Hospital, and well known as a scholar and classical editor, who at one time proposed to publish them. For this reason he declined to lend them to Mr. Bell, who, when compiling his important edition of White s book, borrowed much MS. from other members of the family. Dr. John White, however, died some years ago without having carried out his intention; the letters then became the property of the present Earl of Stamford, a descendant of Gilbert White s youngest brother Henry, and at his...
