Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When twelve-year-old Maddi Moo, a veterinarian s daughter from Nebraska, teams up through a chance encounter with twelve-year-old Wendy Morgan, daughter of the President of the United States, can this unlikely duo free two award winning horses desperately trapped in their overturned horse trailer before time runs out? Intensifying the suspense, these resourceful young ladies from different worlds must find a way to save a fifteen-foot Burmese Python from almost certain peril. Add a runaway horse, a couple of mysterious Secret Service agents, and some dangerous summer weather, and you have the ingredients for an unforgettable tale. Maddi Moo, Veterinarian s Daughter, Presidential Adventure takes place in the nostalgic town of Midland, Nebraska where charming twelve-year-old Maddison Conners and her veterinarian father go from one animal adventure or emergency to another. Dr. Johnny McConnaughhay s veterinary experiences range from treating traditional patients such as dogs, cats, cows, and horses to more exotic animals like ostrich, monkeys, and even pythons. He resides in the central Nebraska town of Hastings. Throughout his 18 years of private practice, Dr. McConnaughhay s two daughters have spent endless hours in the clinic assisting him and experiencing first-hand the excitement of going on veterinary calls in the country to midnight emergency surgeries at the clinic. These father-and-daughter adventures are the primary inspiration behind his desire to write Maddi Moo, Veterinarian s Daughter, Presidential Adventure. A graduate of Kansas State University Veterinary School, Dr. McConnaughhay has also worked as a veterinarian for Nebraska s State Horse Racing Division and the United States Department of Agriculture. Among his many authentic adventures, Dr. McConnaughhay actually served as the veterinarian on-call when President Regan visited Hastings...
