W, parts it is surrounded by the sea, and encompassed with a wall, flanked by bastions, and towards the land, to the E. and S. E. quarters, where the city is accessible, .and. favours the approach of an enemy, there seems to be very extensive outworks, with regular flitches and covered way. Wednesday, April 51ft.--The first part of this day calm, and latterly light airs from the north-west. Concluding that the frequent calms may be occasioned by our keeping too near the coast of Dalmatia, I recommended to our Sclavonian captain to keep farther from the shore, but found him deaf to this suggestion. Passed close to a number of barren, uninhabited islands, with which this jjprtof. the coast of Dalmatia appears crowded., Thursday,...
