At an early hour on the evening of Thursday, the 20th of November, 1873, a large congregation had assembled, eager to witness the interesting ceremonies. Many may indeed have been drawn by no higher motive than curiosity; but the hearts even of these must have been solemnized by the chaste, beautiful and suggestive decoration which decked those venerable walls. Appropriate texts from God s Holy Word met the eye on every side, telling us we were no idle spectators of a drama, but actors in a living present, linked with those scenes which have no dead past, and whose future stretches on to the Throne of the Great Eternal. On the north wall of the Church we read, in letters of living green, Remember all the way the Lord thy God hath led thee, words which gave to our Centenary the sanction of a divine command. High above the Chancel grateful hearts had raised an Ebenezer, and written in strong relief, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us; a devout and loyal recognition of the loving kindness of a century. And as past mercies are a pledge of future good. Faith had written on the southern wall, She shall still Bring Forth Fruit In Old Age; while over the gates of our Sanctuary rose the aspiration of every...
