

A Red Flower (Paperback)

By Vsevolod Garshlin

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This little tale is a terrible indictment against war, and yet it is written with utmost simplicity - a really artistic simplicity which permits its being placed side by side with the best pages of Turgenev and Tolstoy. In 1879 an execution was pending at St. Petersburg, and the summary justice of a court-martial had produced a most painful impression on society. During the night Garshin made a desperate effort to obtain a reprieve for the condemned. He failed in his attempt, and two days later, seized by a nervous disease, he ran away from his friends who kept watch over him, wandered on foot over Russia, and was at last confined in a provincial lunatic asylum. He soon recovered, and wrote A Red Flower, a most striking description of the double consciousness of a madman who knows his illness and yet makes superhuman efforts to destroy some red flower - a red poppy he saw in the garden of the asylum-because that flower, stained with the blood of all martyrs of humanity, appears to be, in his...
