Excerpt: . . . 11 other thing is figuring out how the military is almost like a State where it has reciprocity like the rest of the States. So I guess what I am saying is that this thing is something that we have to get done. It is a commonsense thing, but there are some things out there that we have just got to work through. And some of the problems that we are dealing with arent inherent just to the military. The other problem, I think, is that again, if a guy has been in Iraq, say he has been in the military 10 years and he has been a truckdriver the whole time regardless of where he has been, he has run up and down the interstates, is getting credit for those 10 years and that I think is really one of the bigger deals of all this is when he hires on at a major trucking company or an inde-pendent, that it is recognized, and that he has 10 years behind the wheel and so many miles. And many times, they dont do that. Okay So those are kind of the problems. You can comment about those things if you would like. I think the roundtable approach to some of these things might be a good idea because it is really difficult to kind of get to the root of some of this stuff, unless you arent just kind of visiting back and forth and maybe have some of the heads of the State Boards in different professions that can give us input....
