Excerpt: . to put the matter in order, I confidently hope that the divine Majesty will arrange it entirely for His greater praise and glory, for by His grace we desire nothing else. May He through His infinite and supreme goodness deign to grant us His abundant grace that we may perceive His divine will and accomplish it entirely.40 XXIV. To The Fathers And Brothers At Coimbra.41 Rome, May 7, 1547. May the grace and eternal love of Christ Our Lord ever favour and help us. Amen. Through the letters of Master Simon and Santa Cruz I continually receive news of you all, and God knows, from Whom all that is good proceeds, the great consolation and joy I experience when I hear ihow He helps you in the study of letters as well as of virtue, the good odour of which encourages and animates...
