Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Diseases, Regeneration, Culture of the Potato: Containing an Examination of the Royal Agricultural Society's Prize Essays on the Blight It may be necessary in the outset to state, in as few words as possible, why I have been induced to examine a question which has baffled the skill of numerous individuals, distinguished for their scientific attainments. About ten years ago I wrote several letters on horticultural subjects, which were printed in a provincial paper - the Preston Pilot. One of these letters was on the dry rot disease of the potato, at that time prevalent to a considerable extent. I forwarded a copy of the newspaper containing this letter, to the late T. A. Knight, Esq., then President of the Horticultural Society, thinking it would afford him some pleasure to learn, that an attempt, however humble, was being made to induce better modes of cultivation, based on a knowledge of natural laws. To my gratification Mr. Knight wrote to the Editor of the Pilot, in confirmation of the accuracy of my views respecting...
