After three years away as the goalkeeper for an English soccer club, Markus has been happy to be back in Australia. He d missed his family and friends, including Sarah. He s known her since childhood, and often protected her from the teasing of other children and the troubling consequences of a broken home. When they attend their friends wedding, a new light is cast on their friendship. Sarah is fresh out of a bad relationship, and Markus has always been the one she can confide in. Maybe it s the magic of the wedding-or how stunning he looks in a tux-but the attraction between them intensifies in ways they d never imagined. But sometimes when risking what you have, you might lose everything. Following a passionate encounter, Markus isn t sure how to handle this new aspect of his relationship with Sarah, and literally flees the scene for the coast. Sarah is unsure how to react to his sudden departure, but is soon knocked off course by misunderstandings and a frightening family emergency. Markus realizes his mistake and wants to make things right, but he also faces obstacles. He s been offered an exciting new job, and an attractive newcomer to the neighborhood is eager to claim his attention, though the last thing Markus needs is another confusing relationship. Can Sarah and Markus face the fear and doubt-and the potential loss of their lifelong friendship-to give their love a chance?.
