Horst and Graben at the Chateau Godot: A Play in One Act

By Jeffrey Gold

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 28 pages. Dramatica Press plays are designed to enhance readability of the stageplay format by creating a new ergonomic layout and using color to easily differentiate between character names, dialogue, parentheticals, and stage directions. Synopsis In this absurdist tragicomedy, Horst, an everyman, is waiting for a dinner date to arrive. Graben, a long-forgotten near-acquaintance recognizes him and again intrudes into the much-sought serenity of his life. Characters Horst (pronounced Horst) has been living on his own in New York for the last five years. His daughter lives in upstate New York, which is the primary reason he made the move to the Big Apple. He hasn't quite found the employment that is stable enough for him to feel very comfortable in his new environs. He lives in a sparsely furnished apartment, and can often be seen eating string cheese while looking at the city from his bedroom window. Aware of the cosmopolitan aspects of living in the big city, Horst found a framed print of Edvard Munch's The Scream to hang on his wall, adding contrast to an otherwise maudlin collection of black and white photos of his daughter. Graben...
