SCHEDULED TO DIE (HARDBACK)

Henry Press, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This story starts off with a bang and does not let up. And the twists? Yeah, you don't see them coming either. a strong storyline with likable characters and I totally recommend that you should buy this book! - Booklikes I started this thriller last intending to read only a little. I didn't put down until I was done. The twists and turns led to a surprise end that I didn't see coming! - NetGalley Reviewer It's almost impossible to put down. neatly chronicled detective work, mixed with expertly choreographed acts of terror and suspense take you on a thrilling ride. Grab something to brace to fortify your nerves, maybe a few tissues and a nail file (for the damage your teeth will inflict on said nails) and get comfy for this exciting journey. Enjoy, and don't forget to breathe! - Goodreads Reviewer Carter Mays newest client, Dana Carrington, has been given a year to live. Her prognosis didn't come from a medical professional, but rather the handsome, charming man she met while on a business trip. After an evening with charismatic stranger, Mike Sweeney, filled with potential and intrigue, things quickly deteriorate into the most frightening and traumatic experience of Dana's life. Presented as an opportunity to be envied, Sweeney instructs Dana to spend the next year living life to the fullest, pursuing every extraordinary opportunity she ever dreamt about. When the year is up, Sweeney intends to reconvene for a romantic evening that will end with Dana's death. However, if Dana dares to contact law enforcement, her impending death will come much quicker and be far more brutal. Paralyzed by fear of the...
